CAMP PACIFIC

CAMP PACIFIC OVERVIEW

Army and Navy Academy's (ANA) Camp Pacific offers young co-eds activity and instructional camp options that motivate and encourage socialization, skill development, and personal growth. Creative classes and interactive activities reinforce confidence and social skills while promoting admirable moral character traits.

Campers unite as a diverse international population during their stay, developing positive relationships with peers and staff in a supportive environment that promotes independence and a sense of belonging.

Make your camp selection with confidence knowing your camper will receive attentive care and support. A dedicated staff focused on mentoring campers provides the constant supervision essential in maintaining an atmosphere of physical and emotional safety. This nurturing environment offers opportunities for overnight and day-campers to:

- Acquire honor and pride in themselves
- Build positive self-esteem through goal accomplishment
- Develop self-discipline, leadership, and respect for others
- Strive for realization of individual potential

With emphasis placed on safety, personal development, and sportsmanship, campers experience all the benefits of community life at ANA.

ANA Campers:

- Feel safe and secure with staff supervision, on-site medical services, and camp security
- Enjoy full access to our unique oceanfront campus facilities, including monitored beach access
- Develop confidence, independence, and resilience
- Experience a feeling of community and build cherished friendships

OPEN HOUSE EVENTS

Mark your calendars today!

Army and Navy Academy will be hosting three on-campus weekend events leading up to summer 2018. These "open house" events provide visitors opportunities to meet staff, tour the campus, and ask all the questions they have about ANA summer camps.

- 9:30 a.m. Saturday 21 April
- 9:30 a.m. Saturday 12 May
- 9:30 a.m. Saturday 16 June

We appreciate an R.S.V.P. in advance if you plan on attending, but "walk-ins" are more than welcome too. Bring sunscreen and your walking shoes, and we'll see you this spring.

“Camp Pacific is a great experience, the European staff are amazing. The friends I made at camp are life-long friendships. Camp Pacific goes above and beyond with, the places we go and the activities we do.” —Hailey Edmond, Camp Pacific Camper

SESSION OPTIONS

For 75 years Camp Pacific has been a staple of summer at ANA, focused on teamwork, sportsmanship, and self-improvement.

LEADERSHIP EDUCATION AND TRAINING (LET) HIGH SCHOOL CO-EDS, GRADES 9-12

LET Introduction: $2,995

Session One: 1 July to 14 July

Session Two: 15 July to 28 July

LET Introduction presents leadership education with group instruction, hands-on learning, and outdoor adventures. This introduction to basic leadership focuses on the core values of honor, integrity, responsibility, loyalty, and selfless service motivating Summer Cadets and allowing them to add "leadership training" to their resumes and college applications. (Non-Credit Course)

LET 1: $4,995

Session One: 1 July to 28 July

As the only Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (JROTC) credit-producing summer leadership course west of the Mississippi River, ANA's Camp Challenge LET 1 stands alone. Summer Cadets learn to focus on achievement as they overcome physical and mental challenges while developing self-confidence as leaders. (Credit Course)

LET 2: $4,995

Session One: 1 July to 28 July

After completing LET 1, returning Summer Cadets can concentrate on more advanced citizenship skills, while continuing their development as confident team members in LET 2. Building on their experience, LET 2 Summer Cadets take part in health and first aid instruction designed to promote wellness through nutrition, physical fitness, and substance abuse prevention. (Credit Course)

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM (LDP) MIDDLE SCHOOL CO-EDS, GRADES 6-8

LDP Basic: $2,995

Session One: 1 July to 14 July

Session Two: 15 July to 28 July

This "Introduction to Leadership" caters to middle school students interested in exploring their leadership potential and enhancing existing leadership skills while learning the fundamentals of citizenship. LDP Summer Cadets pick up invaluable life skills through fun activities and adventure-based challenges that reinforce teamwork, accountability, discipline, respect, and other traits, setting their foundation for success.

LDP Advanced: $2,995

Session One: 1 July to 14 July

Session Two: 15 July to 28 July

Available to those that have completed the basic course, this level of LDP consists of a more advanced curriculum in leadership combined with an introduction to subjects that will help prepare Summer Cadets for high school. As with all Camp Challenge camps, LDP Advanced focuses on the Core Values of Honor, Integrity, Responsibility, Loyalty, and Selfless Service.

LDP Combination: $4,995

Session One: 1 July to 28 July

For families interested in the opportunity to have their Summer Cadet complete basic and advanced courses in one summer, this option provides both during a four-week session.
